

WORLD CUP NANTES 2009

WORLD CUP 2009

NANTES AIRPORT

The Nantes Atlantique Airport lies just South of Nantes and is the leading airport in the west of France.

The TAN Air bus shuttle runs to the City centre in about 20 minutes. Tickets from/to the airport (6 Euros) can be bought onboard the buses and are valid for one hour throughout the local TAN public transport network.

There is also a regular bus route (bus number 37) running from the Airport to the Tramway Line 3 at Neustrie station. Take the bus 37 outside the Airport Terminal and going towards Croix Jeannette. Stop at Neustrie 5 minutes later. At Neustrie, take tramway 3 (Direction Sillon de Bretagne) and stop at Wattignies Station where the tournament hall is located. For bus fare, please click on the «Public Transportation» icon on the World Cup page on the ITSF website.

A taxi stand is located just opposite the entrance door of the airport terminal. A taxi ride to downtown Nantes takes around 10 to 15 minutes and costs between 22 to 30 Euros, depending on the distance and the time of day. For reservations call +33 (0)240 69 22 22.

AIRLINES

EasyJet
<http://www.easyjet.com>

Ryan Air
<http://www.ryanair.com>

Air France
<http://www.airfrance.fr>

Iberia
<http://www.iberia.com>

ON THE 5 ITSF OFFICIAL TABLES

